

Chiropractor arrested, accused of sexually-assaulting patient

Chiropractor arrested, accused of sexually-assaulting patient. 9NEWS at 4 p.m. 12/27/12.

Fort Collins Coloradoan, news source 10:39 a.m. MST December 27, 2012

Dr. Jack Cody was taken into custody on Christmas Eve and booked into the Weld County Jail in connection with an incident reported on Dec. 22. Cody's office is on 10th Street in Greeley, and his website says he also serves patients in Evans, Windsor and Fort Collins.

Police said a patient who had been receiving treatments from Cody Chiropractic reported that Cody had become increasingly inappropriate with her. The woman said that on Dec. 22, Cody was giving her ultrasound treatment when he touched her touched her inappropriately.

The Greeley Police would like to hear from anyone who feels their treatments may have been inappropriately administered by this health care practitioner. Please call the police department at 970-350-9600 to speak with an officer.