Arrest Warrant Issued For Alma Doctor Accused Of Sexual Assault

POSTED: 4:51 pm CDT March 28, 2008
UPDATED: 5:10 pm CDT March 28, 2008

ALMA, Ark. -- Official issued warrants Friday for an Alma doctor accused of sexually assaulting two women.

Alma police have been investigating Dr. Clarence Jay Arendall since two women came forward claiming he assaulted them, police said.

Arendall is a family doctor who has been practicing at his office on Highway 71 in Alma.

According to a national physician database, he graduated from the University of Arkansas for Medical Science in 2000.

Arendall had not been arrested by Friday afternoon, and the case is under investigation, investigators said.
